THE RETIRING MINISTER.

As will be seen by a special telegram published in another column, and the report of a banquet given at Tientsin on the 6th instant, the retiring British Minister Sir Nicholas O'Connor, was accorded a very warm reception by the municipality of the far northern port, but was merely interviewed by the Committee of the Shanghai Chamber of Commerce. Nothing justifying a special "wire" transpired at the meeting, so our correspondent informs us, and it therefore seems that the interview was just as barren of important results as, apparently, has been Sir Nicholas' term of office in Peking.

In the course of his speech at the banquet at Tientsin Sir Nicholas O'Connor is reported to have said: "I have done but my duty, and that is a very faulty and imperfect manner, and if I have met to-night with an excessive meet of commendation it is owing simply to the fact that I have tried to do my best for the interests and development of British trade and commerce in this vast Empire—a trade that not only enriches the labouring classes of the mother country, but brings content and prosperity to the country in which we are residing." If an honest confession is good for the soul, then surely the retiring diplomatist must have left Tientsin in the best of good-humours and feeling that, although he had done his duty "in a very faulty way" he had met with an excessive meet of commendation owing to the fact that he "had tried to do his best."

What that best amounts to, is not told the Shanghai community, and it is hardly likely that he will be less guarded in conversation with the local representatives of the China Association, or any other body that may seek an interview with him. We can, however, only hope for the best and trust that our Minister's reticence is indicative of some important steps having been taken to further British interests generally in this part of the world, though, at the same time, we are bound to candidly confess our inability to discover, on the political horizon or in any other direction, the smallest evidence of such highly desirable results to a policy of abstention which seems to have been carried to unfortunate extremes.

TELEGRAMS.

(Special to Hongkong Telegraph.)
SIR NICHOLAS O'CONOR.
SHANGHAI, November 16th.

Sir Nicholas O'Connor met the members of the Chamber of Commerce last Thursday morning, but nothing transpired worth telegraphing. No special reception was accorded Sir Nicholas on his arrival here.

THE LOSS OF THE "NANKING."

The Norwegian steamer Nanking was on a voyage from Hongkong to Newchwang when she came to grief. She is badly ashore and will become a total loss. Lloyd's Surveyor has boarded her and is of opinion that there is absolutely no chance of saving her. The whole of the crew and passengers have been safely landed. She was fully laden with sugar and general merchandise, all of which is more or less seriously damaged by sea water. The vessel is full of water and the cargo is rapidly washing out of her holds. It is thought that a good deal of the general cargo may be saved, but that depends chiefly on the weather, which at present is very boisterous.

REUTER'S MESSAGES.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
The Powers are exchanging views on the Eastern Question, the centre of discussion being Vienna.

(From the Rangoon Times.)
THE "TEMPS" ON THE PORT ARTHUR COUP.

PARIS, October 31st.
The Temps, in an article to-day, is convinced that the report regarding the Port Arthur coup, published by The Times, represents the future, if not the present position of affairs, as it is impossible to suppose that Russia would neglect such an unique occasion for profiting, by the condition of China.

EVACUATING THE LIAOTUNG PENINSULA.
ST. PETERSBURG, October 31st.

The Novoye Vremya states that the Japanese have commenced the evacuation of the Liaotung peninsula.
